Welcome
TO BELLEVILLE

Our ancestors arrived on the shores of the Bay of Quinte on May 22, 1784. Not long after the Mohawks made settlement, many United Empire Loyalists continued to come into the Bay of Quinte area. Within a span of 23 years (1820-1843) two-thirds of the treaty land base under the Simcoe Deed was lost as the government made provisions to accommodate settler families. Today, the Mohawks share the shores of the Bay of Quinte with others including the Municipality of Belleville.

The Haudenosaunee (Iroquois) flag contains a Silver Chain which is a covenant which represents the relationship between the Mohawk Nation and the Europeans. This relationship was to be as "pure, strong and untarnished" as the silver of a chain. The symbolism behind the silver chain is important as it recognizes a need for the continuous attention to "polish" the chain and keep it in a "healthy" condition.

Together we honour our Mohawk Language, Culture and History. We are working to make Tyendinaga Territory a strong, prosperous and healthy community.

History

THE MOODIE HOUSE

Susanna Moodie: Pioneer Chronicler

Born in England in 1803, Susanna (Strickland) Moodie immigrated to Upper Canada with her husband John Wedderburn Dunbar Moodie in 1832. They farmed near Cobourg for two years and then moved to Rice Lake before settling in Belleville in 1840.

A member of a noted literary family which also included Catherine Parr Traill and Samuel Strickland, Susanna became a leading author of the pre-Confederation period and her poems and short stories appeared in journals in Canada and England. Her two autobiographical books, Roughing it in the Bush (1852) and its sequel Life in the Clearings (1853)—about her adventures and challenges in Canada, have become Canadian literary classics. Both books were written during her time living in Belleville and both are still in print.

The beautiful stone cottage once home to Susanna Moodie sits at the corner of Bridge and Sinclair Streets. It's being lovingly restored now and reopening as The Moodie House—a boutique retreat and cultural gathering place, designed to spark creativity and connection through writers' retreats, intimate events, celebrations and historical tours. Opening this summer, stop in to get a sneak peek at what they're creating. For more information visit themoodiehouse.com

BAY OF QUINTE YACHT CLUB

Come Sail Away

The Bay of Quinte in Belleville offers sailors and powerboaters exploring the Canadian coast of Lake Ontario a sheltered passage between Kingston and the Trent-Severn Canal with a variety of marinas and boat launches catering to both seasonal and transient boaters.

The Bay of Quinte Yacht Club celebrates its 150th anniversary in 2026. With a colourful and storied history, the BQYC is the 4th oldest boating club in Canada and 2nd oldest in Ontario.

In 1876, Belleville was a bustling town of about 10,000 people boasting a booming economy fueled by forestry, farming and mining. With an idyllic setting in the Bay of Quinte, the sport of sailing was also growing.

There was a strong interest for local boats to race against boats from Toronto, Rochester and Oswego, but in order to participate, sailors had to belong to a legitimate yacht club, and so the Bay of Quinte Yacht Club was born. The BQYC is one of very few Canadian Clubs ever to put up a challenge in the America's Cup, with their entry of the Atalanta in 1881.

The Bay of Quinte Yacht Club is located at Victoria Park Harbour. The park provides an ideal location to watch sailors practicing their skills or catch sailing regattas throughout the summer. Victoria Harbour is also perfect for walking or biking and is a great spot for shore fishing. It's also a beautiful backdrop for enjoying a meal across the water at the Boathouse Seafood Restaurant & Waterfront Patio.

Celebrate the Jubilee and other BQYC events. Visit bqyc.ca

SUMMER

There's no better way to enjoy summer's hazy days and nights than to sit on a patio sipping a refreshing beverage. The Downtown District boasts a landscape of patios dotted along Front Street where patrons can drink and dine with friends while enjoying live music in the evenings. A river view patio is tucked in behind Law & Order Burgers and The Local Social House overlooks the Moira River as well. The Boathouse Seafood Restaurant & Patio looks across to Victoria Harbour and The Pier Patio Bar and Grill sits right on the Bay of Quinte. Even uptown restaurants like Boston Pizza, Chilango's Mexican Restaurant, Little Texas, Lonestar and Montana's offer outdoor seating to make the most of those long summer nights. The patio at Signal Brewery is a must-see, and even if you don't golf, the patios at Black Bear Ridge and Trillium Wood are open to the public and offer great vistas of each course.

THE LOCAL SOCIAL HOUSE

FALL

Just Bee Cuz Honey Farm (1494 Hwy 37, Plainfield) is a small local apiary located on 1.5 acres of land, a few minutes north of town where you can enjoy a "Bee Our Guest" Apitourism Experience. With all the protective gear on hand, guests will get a peek inside the bee hive, learn about honey bee biology, pollination and more. They also have a small retail shop offering fresh raw honey, beeswax candles and workshops. Doing a little fall gardening? Why not visit The Village Green (535 Ashley Street) in Foxboro where you'll find heritage seedlings (and seeds), as well as a lovely selection of local and organic products and locally-made handcrafts. You just might find that perfect quilt to snuggle up in as the evenings get cooler.

THE VILLAGE GREEN

Another must-stop is The Willows Flower Farm + Market (240 Blessington Road). This beautiful Agri-tourism destination offers a variety of flower picking experiences, where you can wander through the long rows of beautiful flowers and handpick favourites to create your very own arrangements. Their greenhouse offers a fantastic selection of plants, fruit trees, shrubs and fall bulbs to choose from. A perfect stop for those who continue to garden well into the autumn season.

WINTER

When the city is blanketed in snow and the air is crisp, Belleville offers plenty to enjoy, from tobogganing at East Zwick's or North Riverside Park to cross-country skiing on nearby trails. Once the Bay is frozen and snow is cleared, there is free public skating at Victoria Harbour. Take time to appreciate the tranquility of the season with a bundled-up walk along the waterfront trails, where you can enjoy the view of the frozen Bay of Quinte at the water's edge and see the skyline from a completely different perspective.

Belleville's Downtown District is always beautifully decorated during the winter season and you won't want to miss the Festival of Lights display, a community beloved tradition that keeps Jane Forrester Park sparkling from mid-November until January.

Memorial Market Place

The historic Belleville Memorial Arena has begun a new chapter as the Memorial Market Place, a dynamic lifestyle and retail hub in the heart of Belleville's downtown. This exciting transformation of a beloved city landmark combines commerce, creativity, and community all under one roof.

An active community centre for more than 80 years, the Memorial Arena was Belleville's major claim to hockey fame as home ice for the Belleville McFarlands (1956-61), the team that defeated the Soviet Union in 1959 to win the World Championship. It holds the memories of generations of skaters including NHL Alumni Bobby Hull, Matt Cooke, Brad Richardson and Andrew Shaw. In 2003, it was designated under the Ontario Heritage Act by the City of Belleville and remains a time capsule of sports history.

With views of Belleville's Farmers' Market, the Memorial Market Place has over 15,000 square feet of retail space and will soon welcome The Rink, a 15,000 square foot event space.

These shops are now open and thriving, with more shops scheduled to open soon. Benji's Coffee Bar—a community-focused café that has already become a local favorite since opening in 2023, Cracked Glass Design—an inviting stained-glass workshop and artist studio, The Kiln Ceramics Studio—a Canadian sourced paint-your-own pottery studio, The Salon—a prestigious salon offering full salon services in a welcoming and relaxed environment, LOFT & Co.—a contemporary women's boutique of clothing, accessories, shoes and more, Crystal Catch—specializing in fresh fish but offering a variety of grocery staples and specialties.

Farmers Market

Located in Market Square behind City Hall, the market is open Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays all year-round from 9 am to 5 pm (peak time 9 am to 2 pm).

Any season is a great time to visit the Belleville Farmers Market. Over two centuries of families and neighbours have grown up with this market in Downtown Belleville—it's become a community gathering place and is a fantastic way to support locally grown and made products.

Constructed in 1872-73, five years before Belleville became a city, the original City Hall building housed an indoor market on the first floor and a public hall and municipal office on the second floor. During this time residents could shop inside the building to purchase the fruit, vegetables and pies on display. bellevillefarmersmarketon.ca
